4. How we protect your personal data.

We have implemented general accepted standards of technology and operational security in order to protect personal data from loss, misuse, or unauthorized alteration or corruption.

Please note, however, that when you are transmitting information to us over the internet, then given the internet is not a secure medium, we cannot definitely guarantee the security of this information.

We will notify you promptly in the event of any breach of your personal data which might expose you to serious risk.

5. Who else has access to the information you provide us?

We will never sell your personal data. Apart from Paddle UK who may require Club membership details and qualification, we will not share your personal data with any third parties without your prior consent (which you are free to withhold) except where required to do so by law.

6. How long do we keep your information?

We will hold your personal data on our system for as long as you are a member of the Club and for as long afterwards as is necessary to comply with our legal obligations.

7. Your rights.

You have rights under UK data protection law, including:

1. To access your personal data.
2. To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed.
3. To have your personal data corrected.
4. To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances.
5. To object to, or restrict, how your personal data is processed.
6. To have your personal data transferred to yourself or to another Club in certain circumstances.

If you wish for us to erase your data as outlined in paragraph 4 above then please contact the membership secretary at herefordkayakclub@outlook.com. Please be aware that if you are a current member of Hereford Kayak Club deletion of your personal data will lead to immediate termination of your membership.

If you have any concerns about how we process your personal data please contact the membership secretary (details above).
